Attorneys for Plaintiff
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

Case No. '15CV2440 GPC AHG

Plaintiff,

V.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION
AND OTHER RELIEF

Global Financial Support, Inc.,
d/b/a Student Financial Resource Center, d/b/a College Financial Advisory; and

Armond Aria a/k/a Armond Amir Aria, individually, and as owner and CEO of Global Financial Support, Inc.:

Defendants.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (the “Bureau”) alleges the following against Global Financial Support, Inc. d/b/a Student Financial Resource Center and

1 College Financial Advisory (“Global Financial Support, Inc.”) and Armond Aria or
2 Armond Amir Aria (“Armond Aria”) (together, “Defendants”):

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. The Bureau brings this action under Sections 1031(a), 1036(a)(1)(B), 1054,
5 and 1055 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (“CFPA”); 12 U.S.C. §§
6 5531(a), 5536(a)(1)(B), 5564(a), and 5565 based on Defendants’ violations of the CFPA
7 in connection with the offering, marketing, sale, and provision of student financial aid
8 advisory services, and under Section 1016 of Regulation P, 12 C.F.R. §1016.4(a), based 9 on Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc.’s failure to provide a required notice.

10 2. Defendants, from at least January 2011 until the present (“Relevant Period”),
11 have run a deceptive scheme to persuade consumers to pay a fee to apply for student
12 financial aid assistance. In reality, Defendants do not provide these consumers with the 13 promised student financial aid assistance.

14 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 3. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action because the action
16 is “brought under Federal consumer financial law,” 12 U.S.C. § 5565(a)(1), presents a
17 federal question, 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and is brought by an agency of the United States, 28
18 U.S.C. § 1345.

19 4. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 12
20 U.S.C. § 5564(f).

21 PARTIES

22 Plaintiff

23 5. Plaintiff, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, is an independent 24 agency of the United States charged with regulating the offering and provision of 25 consumer financial products and services under federal consumer financial laws. 12
26 U.S.C. § 5491(a). The Bureau has independent litigating authority, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5564(a)
27 and (b), and is charged with enforcement of federal consumer financial laws including the

1 Consumer Financial Protection Act (“CFPA”). 12 U.S.C. §5511. The CFPA prohibits
2 any covered person from engaging in unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices. 12
3 U.S.C. §§ 5531 and 5536.

4 Defendants

5 Global Financial Support, Inc.

6 6. Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. is a California corporation.
7 Global Financial Support, Inc. conducts business as College Financial Advisory and
8 Student Financial Resource Center.

9 7. Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. claims its physical business
10 address is 3268 Governor Drive, Suite F, PMB 144, San Diego, CA 92122 and 11 consumers applying for financial aid assistance from College Financial Advisory or 12 Student Financial Resource are directed to send their checks to 3268 Governor Drive, 13 Suite #144, San Diego, CA 92122. The address, however, is a PostalAnnex+ store and 14 not a business address.

15 8. Global Financial Support, Inc. is a “covered person” under the CFPA 16 because it offers and provides “financial advisory services,” as that term is used in 17 section 1002(15)(A)(viii) of the CFPA. 12 U.S.C. § 5481(15)(A)(viii).

18 9. During the relevant period, Global Financial Support, Inc. transacts or has 19 transacted business in the Southern District of California.

20 Armond Aria

21 10. Defendant Armond Aria is the owner and registered agent of Global 22 Financial Support, Inc., the President of College Financial Advisory, and the CEO of 23 Student Financial Resource Center.

24 11. Mr. Aria founded Global Financial Support, Inc. in or around February 25 2005.

26 12. In March 2005, Mr. Aria created and registered the fictitious business name
27 College Financial Advisory.

13. In September 2011, Mr. Aria created and registered the fictitious business name Student Financial Resource Center.

14. Mr. Aria is a signatory on the bank accounts for Global Financial Support, Inc. d/b/a Student Financial Resource Center and for Global Financial Support, Inc. d/b/a College Financial Advisory.

15. Mr. Aria has primary access to mailbox #144 at the PostalAnnex+ store located at 3268 Governor Drive, San Diego, CA 92122, the address listed for Global Financial Support, Inc.

16. Mr. Aria is the point of contact for Global Financial Support, Inc.'s business relationships with the mailing services that print, fold, and stamp letters sent to consumers.

17. Mr. Aria is the point of contact for Global Financial Support, Inc.'s business relationships with a phone answering service that accepts calls from consumers on behalf of College Financial Advisory and/or Student Financial Resource Center.

18. During the relevant period, acting alone or in concert with others, Mr. Aria has formulated, directed, controlled, or participated in the acts and practices of Global Financial Support, Inc., including the acts and practices set forth in this Complaint.

19. Mr. Aria is a “related person” pursuant to the CFPA because he is the director and/or officer of Global Financial Support, Inc., and materially participates in the affairs of Global Financial Support, Inc. 12 U.S.C. § 5481(25) (C).

20. Mr. Aria is deemed a “covered person” pursuant to the CFPA because he is a “related person.” 12 U.S.C. § 5481(25)(B).

21. During the relevant period, Mr. Aria transacts or has transacted business in the Southern District of California.

BACKGROUND

A. Defendants' Business

22. During the relevant period, Defendants, under the names College Financial Advisory and Student Financial Resource Center, have run a deceptive scheme to persuade high school seniors, enrolled college students, and their families to pay Defendants a fee to participate in a student financial aid “program.” As part of this program, Defendants promise to match students with targeted financial aid opportunities and apply for financial aid for students.

23. Through the use of an official-looking seal, artificial filing deadlines, references to students' universities, a "Student Aid Profile Form," and a strategically worded letter, Defendants exploit consumers' unfamiliarity, anxiety, and confusion about the Free Application for Federal Student Aid ("FAFSA") and the student financial aid process generally.

B. FAFSA and Student Financial Aid

24. The FAFSA is a universal loan application form provided by the Office of Federal Student Aid at the United States Department of Education. For no charge, students and their families may apply for financial aid by filling out the FAFSA and returning it to the Office of Federal Student Aid.

25. Students who are entering college or already enrolled in college are encouraged by their universities to fill out the FAFSA and participate, to the extent possible, in these financial aid programs. Many schools require students to fill out a FAFSA to apply for the schools' own financial aid programs.

26. Students and their families eagerly anticipate the opportunity to apply for student aid through the FAFSA, but are often uninformed, anxious, and confused about the financial aid application process.

C. Defendants' Letters

27. During the relevant period, Defendants have sent letters from College Financial Advisory and/or Student Financial Resource Center to graduating high school seniors, enrolled college students, and their families, offering a “program” through which Defendants will target, individually match, and apply for student financial aid on behalf of students and their families.

28. Defendants identify these consumers by purchasing lists of student information from online vendors. These vendors sell information, such as a student's name, mailing address, year in school, and school name.

29. Defendants have sent millions of letters to consumers nationwide since January 2011.

30. Defendants' letters and accompanying envelopes feature a seal and watermark that employ iconic images found predominantly on seals and watermarks used by government agencies. College Financial Advisory's round seal and watermark include a torch, flying eagles, a graduation cap, and olive branches. See Attachment A. Similarly, Student Financial Resource Center's round seal and watermark include an eagle, a Greek column, a book, and leaves. See Attachment B and C.

31. At the top of each letter, Defendants prominently display a bold print box that includes a “filing deadline,” and a “filing status.” The “filing deadline” varies depending on when the Defendants send the letters to consumers. The “filing status” always reads “pending.”

32. On each letter, in large bold print in a box at the center of the page, Defendants prominently display a 9-digit “student profile” number and the name of the student’s university in a manner that gives the impression that this letter is endorsed or sanctioned by the student’s university. If the student is a senior in high school, the “College Attending” section typically states, “Open-all colleges.”

1       33. The letters then instruct students or their families to fill out and return an
2 application – called a “Student Aid Profile Form” – along with the “refundable
3 processing fee” to proceed with the student aid “program” and “apply for the maximum
4 merit and need-based financial aid programs.” The “Student Aid Profile Form” looks
5 visually similar to the FAFSA and uses similar terms.

6       34. The fee has varied from $59 to $78, depending on the year.

7       35. On the Student Aid Profile Form, Defendants promise to “review” and 8 “assess” borrowers’ applications and “strive to provide as many targeted financial aid
9 opportunities as possible to each and every student, regardless of his/her financial status
10 or academic performance.”

11      36. The Student Aid Profile Form demands private, personal information from 12 students, including date of birth, ethnicity, and even their parents’ employers and 13 addresses, purportedly for use by Defendants to assist them in qualifying students for 14 student financial aid programs. Defendants provide instructions on how to fill out the 15 form, including a specific instruction to sign and date the form.

16      37. Defendants’ letters warn that the “College Financial Advisory Processing 17 Center Department must receive all completed Student Aid Profile Forms no later than 18 [the filing deadline]” and that “late Student Aid Profile Forms will be accepted for 19 students with special circumstances.”

20      38. Sometimes Defendants’ solicitations state that late applications will incur a 21 20% processing fee.

22      39. Defendants state that “the entire processing fee will be returned within ten
23 (10) business days to all students who do not qualify or do not receive financial aid 24 funding.”

25      40. Defendants’ letters represent that consumers will lose their opportunity to 26 obtain student financial aid unless they submit the Student Aid Profile Form and pay the 27 fee to Defendants by a specified date.

1       41. Based on the representations and promises made in these letters, consumers
2 send in the Student Aid Profile Form and associated fee to enroll in Defendants' program.

3       42. Defendants do not provide a clear and conspicuous notice that accurately
4 reflects its privacy policies and practices to consumers.

5                   D. The Website, Phone Number, and Business Expenses

6       43. Along with the letters, Defendants' scheme utilizes two websites –
7 www.collegefinadv.org and www.studentctr.org – with .ORG as its generic top-level
8 domain.

9       44. .ORG domains are commonly known to indicate that the organization
10 associated with the web address is a non-profit, NGO, charitable organization, or interest
11 group and not a for-profit organization.

12      45. The main pages of these two websites display virtually no content, but
13 prompt consumers to input a "Student Profile Number" in order to enter the site and view
14 content. Without entering a Student Profile Number, consumers cannot access the 15 information on the website. This number is on the letters mailed to students and their 16 families.

17      46. Defendants' website urges students and their families to enroll in the student
18 aid program, promising that Student Financial Resource Center "saves students valuable 19 time by conducting precise general research to match student's qualifications and 20 background to available free merit and need-based financial aid programs."

21      47. Although consumers are instructed that they must input their individual 9-22 digit number in order to access the content on the website, there is no individualized
23 content on the website. Some random 9-digit numbers such as 999-999-999 unlock the 24 content hidden behind the main page, displaying the same information that a specific 25 code would yield. The website provides instructions for downloading and filling out the 26 Student Aid Profile Form.

48. Defendants do not maintain a business phone number. Defendants claim consumers can use a toll-free phone number to reach the “College Financial Advisory Student Aid Information Center.” Consumers’ calls to this number, as well as to the phone number provided for the Student Financial Resource Center, are not directed to Defendants. Rather, consumers’ calls are directed to a third-party answering service where an unaffiliated person answers the call, disclaims any association with the Defendants, and purportedly forwards any message along to the Defendants.

49. Defendants' claim to have a physical business location at 3268 Governor Drive in San Diego, referred to in Defendants' mailers as the "Processing Center Department." However, this address is a mailbox at a PostalAnnex+ store near Defendant Aria's home, which Defendant Aria uses to collect consumer payments.

50. Defendants' other purported location, 777 Campus Commons Road in Sacramento, is a virtual office that forwards mail to the P.O. Box at 3268 Governor Drive.

E. Defendants' Unlawful Practices

51. Defendants do not provide the services offered in their letters and on their website.

52. Defendants’ “program” is not a program at all. Defendants do not “process” or “assess” student applications and they do not “target” and “apply” for student financial aid on behalf of consumers.

53. Defendants do not “conduct [] extensive searches.”

54. Defendants do not “match each student’s qualifications and background” to student financial aid opportunities.

55. Defendants do not “provide as many targeted financial aid opportunities as possible to each and every student.”

56. Defendants do not “apply for the maximum merit and need-based financial aid programs” for students.

57. Defendants do not fulfill their promise that “the entire processing fee will be returned within ten (10) business days to all students who do not qualify or do not receive financial aid funding.”

58. Many consumers receive absolutely nothing in exchange for sending in their Student Aid Profile Form and fee.

59. Defendants promise consumers financial aid advice that is individualized or targeted, but actually send nothing or merely a generic booklet that is not tailored to the consumers' circumstances.

60. Defendants' "program" deadline does not correspond to any real deadline associated with any particular financial aid opportunity. The "filing deadline" prominently displayed on Defendants' letters is an arbitrary date that serves only to give the letters an artificial sense of urgency.

61. The overall appearance and wording of the envelope, letter, and form the Defendants send to consumers give consumers the net impression that Defendants are affiliated with the federal government, including the United States Department of Education, or a college or university.

62. Defendants have obtained at least $4.7 million in fees from at least 76,000 consumers during the Relevant Period.

APPLICABLE LAW

63. The Bureau is charged with enforcement of federal consumer financial laws, including the Consumer Financial Protection Act (“CFPA”).

64. Section 1036(a)(1)(B) of the CFPA prohibits covered persons from committing deceptive acts or practices. 12 U.S.C. §5536(a)(1)(B).

65. Regulation P is a federal consumer financial law pursuant to 12 U.S.C. §§ 5481(14).

66. Regulation P requires “a covered person” to provide consumers with whom the covered person has “customer relationships” with a clear and conspicuous initial privacy notice upon commencement of a customer relationship. 12 C.F.R. §1016.4(a).

67. Regulation P defines a “customer relationship” as a “continuing relationship” between a consumer and company that provides one or more “financial products or services” to the consumer that are to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. 12 C.F.R. 1016.3(j)(1).

68. Section 1016.3(j) of Regulation P defines a “continuing relationship” as one in which the consumer “obtains financial, investment, or economic advisory services . . . for a fee.” 12 C.F.R. §1016.3(j)(3)(i)(G).

VIOLATIONS OF THE CFPA

COUNTS I – IV: DEFENDANTS USED DECEPTIVE STATEMENTS TO INDUCE CONSUMERS INTO PAYING A FEE FOR FINANCIAL SERVICES IT DID NOT PROVIDE IN VIOLATION OF THE CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION ACT.

69. Plaintiff re-alleges Paragraphs 1 – 85 and incorporates them herein by reference.

70. In numerous instances, in connection with the offering, marketing, sale, or provision of financial advisory services, Defendants represent, directly or indirectly, expressly or by implication:

71. Count One (Asserted Against Both Defendants): That in exchange for sending Defendants an application and paying Defendants a fee, consumers are applying for student financial aid or Defendants will apply to student financial aid programs on consumers' behalf;

1           72. In truth and in fact, by sending Defendants an application and
2 paying Defendants a fee, consumers are not applying for student financial 3 aid and Defendants do not apply for student financial aid programs on 4 consumers' behalf.

5           73. Count Two (Asserted Against Both Defendants): That
6 Defendants will conduct extensive searches to target or match consumers
7 with particular student financial aid opportunities;

8           74. In truth and in fact, Defendants do not conduct extensive
9 searches to target or match consumers with particular student financial aid
10 opportunities.

11           75. Count Three (Asserted Against Both Defendants): That 12 unless consumers send Defendants an application and pay Defendants a fee
13 by a specified deadline, consumers will lose their opportunity to receive 14 student financial aid;

15           76. In truth and in fact, if consumers do not send Defendants an 16 application and pay Defendants a fee by the specified deadline, they will not 17 lose their opportunity to receive student financial aid because the deadline
18 Defendants provide does not correspond to any real deadline associated with 19 any particular financial aid opportunity.

20           77. Count Four (Asserted Against Defendant Global Financial 21 Support, Inc.): That Defendants are affiliated with the federal government,
22 including the United States Department of Education, or a college or 23 university;

24           78. In truth and in fact, Defendants are not, and never have been,
25 affiliated with the federal government, including the United States
26 Department of Education, or a college or university.

1       79. Defendants' acts or practices in Counts One through Four are likely to
2 mislead consumers acting reasonably under the circumstances.

3       80. Defendants' representations as set forth in the Counts One through Four
4 constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of Sections 1031(a) and 1036(a)(1)(B)
5 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C §§ 5531(a) and 5536(a)(1)(B).

6       COUNT FIVE: DEFENDANTS FAILED TO PROVIDE A REQUIRED NOTICE
7                   IN VIOLATION OF REGULATION P
8                   (Asserted Against Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc.)

9       81. Plaintiff re-alleges Paragraphs 1-85 and incorporates them herein by reference.

10      82. Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. is a covered person subject to the 11 jurisdiction of the Bureau. 12 U.S.C. §§5481(6)(A) & (15)(A)(viii).

12      83. Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. establishes customer relationships 13 because it establishes a continuing relationship between a consumer and company and 14 provides financial products or services to consumers primarily used for personal, family
15 or household purposes. 12 C.F.R. §1016.3(j)(1).

16      84. Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. establishes a continuing 17 relationship with consumers when it accepts a fee for "financial, investment, or economic 18 advisory services." 12 C.F.R. §1016.4(c)(3)(i)(C).

19      85. In numerous instances, in connection with the offering, marketing, sale, or 20 provision of financial advisory services, Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc. failed
21 to provide customers with a clear and conspicuous initial privacy notice upon 22 commencement of a customer relationship required by Regulation P, 12 C.F.R.
23 §1016.4(a).

24      86. A violation of Regulation P violates Section 1036 of the CFPA because 25 Section 1036 of the CFPA renders unlawful any act or omission in violation of a Federal

1 consumer financial law, 12 U.S.C § 5536(a)(1), and Regulation P is a Federal consumer
2 financial law. 12 U.S.C. §5481(14).

3 87. Therefore, Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc.'s acts or practices
4 described in Count Five violate the CFPA.

5 CONSUMER INJURY

7 88. Consumers have suffered and will continue to suffer substantial injury as a
8 result of Defendants' violations of the CFPA and Defendant Global Financial Support,
9 Inc.'s violation of Regulation P. In addition, Defendants have been unjustly enriched as a
10 result of their unlawful acts or practices. Absent injunctive relief by this Court,
11 Defendants are likely to continue to injure consumers, reap unjust enrichment, and harm
12 the public.

13 THIS COURT'S POWER TO GRANT RELIEF

14 89. The CFPA empowers this Court to grant appropriate legal or equitable relief
15 with respect to violations of Federal consumer financial law, including, without 16 limitation, permanent or temporary injunction, rescission or reformation of contracts, the 17 refund of moneys paid, restitution, disgorgement or compensation for unjust enrichment,
18 and civil money penalties. 12 U.S.C. § 5565(a)(2).

19 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 90. Wherefore, the Bureau requests that the Court:

- 21 a. Permanently enjoin Defendants from committing future violations of the 22 CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§5531, 5536, and permanently enjoin Defendant Global
23 Financial Support, Inc. from committing future violations of Regulation P,
24 12 C.F.R. §1016.4(a);
25 b. Award Plaintiff such injunctive and ancillary relief as may be necessary to 26 enjoin Defendants from harming consumers through the advertisement,

1 marketing, promotion, offering for sale or selling of any consumer financial
2 product or service, including, but not limited to, any student financial aid
3 assistance program;

- 4 c. Award such relief as the Court finds necessary to redress injury to 5 consumers resulting from Defendants' violations of the CFPB and
6 Defendant Global Financial Support, Inc.'s violation of Regulation P,
7 including, but not limited to, rescission or reformation of contracts, the 8 refund of moneys paid, restitution, disgorgement or compensation for unjust
9 enrichment, and payment of damages or other monetary relief;
10 e. Award Plaintiff civil money penalties; and 11 f. Award Plaintiff the costs of bringing this action, as well as such other 12 and additional relief the Court determines to be just and proper.

COLLEGE FINANCIAL ADVISORY

www.collegefinadv.org • email: info@collegefinadv.org • 1-888-4-APPLY-NOW

Filing Deadline: April 30, 2011

STUDENT PROFILE NUMBER <sup>1</sup> :	132-014981
COLLEGE ATTENDING <sup>2</sup> :	NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY
FILING STATUS <sup>3</sup> :	PENDING

It is time to apply for all available 2011-2012 financial aid programs to help pay for your college education expenses. Students who did not qualify for federal student aid (Pell Grants, FSEOG, or Work-Study) or need additional financial aid assistance should submit applications to other existing financial aid programs.

Students can receive federal, state, local, national merit, and need-based financial aid assistance regardless of their academic performance or family's income level. These funds are not student loans, and they do not have to be repaid. The money can be used to pay for tuition, room and board, fees, books, computers, and transportation.

Submit the enclosed Student Aid Profile Form (SAPF) to proceed with the 2011-2012 College Financial Advisory (CFA) student aid program and apply for the maximum merit and need-based financial aid programs.

The College Financial Advisory Processing Center Department (CFA-PCD) must receive all completed Student Aid Profile Forms no later than April 30, 2011. Fill out the form, enclose the refundable processing fee, and mail both in the pre-addressed envelope. The entire processing fee will be returned within ten (10) business days to all students who do not qualify or do not receive financial aid funding.

Parents can also complete and sign the enclosed form with accurate student information. Late Student Aid Profile Forms will be accepted for students with special circumstances; however, not all financial aid funds will be available. Prepare to apply early because most financial aid programs have strict deadlines and limited funding.

For more information, contact the College Financial Advisory Student Aid Information Center (CFA-SAIC) at 1-888-4-APLY-NOW (1-888-427-5966). It is time for students to apply for the 2014-2015 financial aid programs to help them pay for their college education. Students who did not qualify to receive federal student aid (Pell Grants, FSEOG, or Work-Study) or students who need additional financial aid funding should apply to other existing free financial aid programs.

Students can receive federal, non-federal, state, local, national merit, and need-based financial aid assistance regardless of their academic performance or family's income level. Students can use the money they receive to pay for tuition, room and board, fees, books, computers and transportation.

Submit the enclosed Student Aid Profile Form (SAPF) to proceed with the 2014-2015 Student Financial Resource Center (SFRC) program and apply for the maximum merit and need-based financial aid programs. The funds from these financial aid programs are not student loans and do not have to be repaid later.

The SFRC Processing Division (SFRC-PD) must receive all completed Student Aid Profile Forms no later than May 31, 2014. Fill out the SFRC form, enclose the refundable processing fee, and mail both in the pre-addressed envelope. The entire processing fee will be returned to all students who do not qualify or do not receive financial aid money.

Parents can also fill out and sign the enclosed SFRC form with accurate student information. Late SFRC forms will be accepted for students with special circumstances; however, not all financial aid funds will be available. Apply early because most financial aid programs have strict deadlines with limited funding. Do not borrow money until you have applied to all of the free federal and non-federal financial aid programs available to you.

For more information, contact the SFRC nationwide message call center at 1-888-730-APPLY (1-888-730-2775). Students can also visit our website at www.studentctr.org or email us at info@studentctr.org with any questions.

The cost of education continues to rise annually, and middle-income families often find themselves caught between "a rock and a hard place." Such families are not wealthy enough to cover all of the costs on their own, but do not have low enough incomes to qualify for need-based aid. Fortunately, there is more diverse financial aid available today than ever before, to help offset these rising costs. You can receive financial aid even if you are not a straight-A student or a top athlete. In fact, most students and parents are unaware of the vast number of civic, private and state grants, merit scholarships, and fellowships that are available each year. Financial aid is accessible to millions of American families. Yet, too many students are under the impression that they cannot receive financial aid that does not require repayment, so they do not bother applying at all. Remember, financial aid is the key to paying for your college education, and understanding the entire college financial aid process is vital. Do not borrow money to pay for your college education until you have fully exhausted all of the free money opportunities first. Borrowing money should be your last alternative. The more you know about the college preparation and financial aid process, the more financial aid money you will receive. Financial aid typically goes to those who know the most about the financial aid system, so it is important to understand all of your financial aid options when it comes to paying for college.

I certify that all of the information on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. SFRC will strive to provide as many targeted financial aid opportunities as possible to each and every student, regardless of his/her financial status or academic performance. These financial aid funds are not loans and they do not have to be repaid, however, SFRC is unable to guarantee results and has no input into the decision to which applicants will be selected to receive financial aid funds and it is not affiliated with any educational institutions, government agencies or funding sources. Most foundations and organizations have a limited amount of funding each year and in the event that funding is not received, the applicant can apply for a full refund within ninety days of receiving the financial aid package. A full refund of the SFRC processing fee will be issued within ten working days.

STUDENT FINANCIAL RESOURCE CENTER™

The Student Financial Resource Center (SFRC) is an independent organization devoted to helping students apply for and receive the best available free merit and need-based financial aid. SFRC conducts extensive searches to match student's qualifications and background to key federal, state, local, and private financial aid programs that are both merit and need-based. SFRC provides students with a comprehensive SFRC financial aid guidebook that explains all of the basics of financial aid and offers valuable tips, practical strategies, and clear guidelines for applying to SFRC's specifically selected free merit and need-based financial aid programs. Studies have shown that a large number of students do not apply for all of the free merit and need-based financial aid programs available to them. SFRC can increase students' chances of obtaining free merit and need-based financial aid programs. You can take advantage of our specialized timesaving services or you can simply invest your own time to find and apply to the numerous free financial aid programs that are readily available to you. Do NOT borrow money to pay for your college education until you have fully exhausted all of the free money opportunities that are out there. Good luck, and best wishes for your successful educational future!
