BUREAU OF CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 2019-BCFP-0009

In the Matter of:

Financial Credit Service, Inc., d/b/a
Asset Recovery Associates

CONSENT ORDER

The Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (Bureau) has reviewed the debt-collection activities of Financial Credit Service, Inc., d/b/a Asset Recovery Associates (Respondent, as defined below) and has identified the following law violations: In the course of collecting on consumer debt, since at least January 1, 2015, Respondent regularly and falsely: (i) threatened consumers with arrest, lawsuits, liens on consumers' homes, and garnishment of consumers' bank accounts or wages; (ii) represented that non-attorney company employees are attorneys; and (iii) represented that consumers' credit reports will be negatively affected if they do not pay, even though ARA does not report consumer debts to credit-reporting agencies. Respondent's conduct constitutes deceptive acts and practices in violation of §§ 1031(a) and 1036(a)(1) of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (CFPA), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531, 5536, and false, deceptive, and misleading representations in violation of §§ 807, 807(3-5), and 807(10) of the Fair

Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), 15 U.S.C. § 1692e. Under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565, the Bureau issues this Consent Order (Consent Order).

I.

Jurisdiction

1. The Bureau has jurisdiction over this matter under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565, and § 814(b) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692l(b).

II.

Stipulation

2. Respondent has executed a “Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of a Consent Order,” dated August 15, 2019 (Stipulation), which is incorporated by reference and is accepted by the Bureau. By this Stipulation, Respondent has consented to the issuance of this Consent Order by the Bureau under §§ 1053 and 1055 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5563, 5565, without admitting or denying any of the findings of fact or conclusions of law, except that Respondent admits the facts necessary to establish the Bureau’s jurisdiction over Respondent and the subject matter of this action.

III.

Definitions

3. The following definitions apply to this Consent Order:
 - a. “Affected Consumers” means consumers who complained about a false threat or misrepresentation by Respondent described in Section IV of the Consent Order between January 1, 2015 and the Effective Date.
 - b. “Effective Date” means the date on which the Consent Order is issued.
 - c. “Enforcement Director” means the Assistant Director of the Office of Enforcement for the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection, or his or her delegate.
 - d. “Related Consumer Action” means a private action by or on behalf of one or more consumers or an enforcement action by another governmental agency brought against Respondent that is based on substantially the same facts as those described in Section IV of this Consent Order.
 - e. “Relevant Period” includes from January 1, 2015 to the Effective Date.

- f. “Respondent” means Financial Credit Service, Inc., including Asset Recovery Associates, ARA, Inc., and its successors and assigns.

IV.

Bureau Findings and Conclusions

The Bureau finds the following:

4. Respondent is headquartered in Lombard, Illinois and is a “debt collector” under the FDCPA. 12 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).
5. Respondent is a “covered person” under 12 U.S.C. § 5481(6).
6. Respondent purchases defaulted debt, primarily from bank and retail credit cards, and collects on these accounts by sending collection letters and making collection calls.
7. In collecting and attempting to collect debts from consumers, Respondent has represented to consumers that, if consumers do not pay, Respondent would:
 - a. file lawsuits or take other legal action against them;
 - b. cause them to be arrested;
 - c. file liens against their houses;
 - d. have their bank accounts or wages garnished; and
 - e. cause their credit scores to be negatively affected.

8. Respondent also has represented to consumers that Respondent employs attorneys to collect debts.
9. Respondent does not take any legal action to collect on debt, whether by filing lawsuits, or by taking any action to put liens on consumers' houses, or by garnishing consumers' bank accounts or wages.
10. Respondent does not take any action to cause consumers to be arrested.
11. Respondent does not engage in any credit reporting to any consumer reporting agencies about any consumer accounts.
12. Respondent does not refer any accounts to lawyers or to any other entities for collection or legal action.
13. Respondent does not employ any attorneys to collect debts or to take legal action against debtors.

Findings and Conclusions as to Deceptive Acts and Practices in Violation of the CFPA

14. Since at least January 1, 2015, in collecting and attempting to collect debts from consumers, Respondent has:
 - a. threatened consumers with legal action—including threats to file lawsuits against consumers, file liens on consumers' houses, garnish consumers' bank accounts or wages, and cause consumers to be arrested—all actions that Respondent has no intention of taking;

- b. represented to consumers that company employees are attorneys when Respondent does not employ attorneys; and
 - c. threatened that consumers' credit reports will be negatively affected when Respondent does not engage in any credit reporting to any consumer reporting agencies about any consumer accounts.
15. Section 1036(a)(1)(B) of the CFPA prohibits covered persons from engaging in deceptive acts or practices. 12 U.S.C. § 5536(a)(1)(B). An act or practice is deceptive if it misleads or is likely to mislead the consumer; the consumer's interpretation is reasonable under the circumstances; and the misleading act or practice is material.
16. Respondent's representations described in Paragraph 14 are likely to mislead consumers acting reasonably under the circumstances and are material because they are likely to affect consumers' decisions about whether, how, and when to make payments to Respondent and how to prioritize competing financial commitments.
17. Thus, Respondent's representations constitute deceptive acts or practices in violation of §§ 1031(a) and 1036(a)(1)(B) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531(a), 5536(a)(1)(B).

Findings and Conclusions as to False, Deceptive, and Misleading Representations in Violation of the FDCPA

18. As described in Paragraph 14, Respondent has misrepresented that it employs attorneys for debt collection and that, if consumers do not pay, Respondent will cause them to be arrested, file liens against their houses, have their bank accounts or wages garnished, file lawsuits or take other legal action against them, and take steps to negatively impact their credit reports.
19. Section 807 of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e, prohibits debt collectors from using any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.
20. Section 807(3) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(3), expressly prohibits debt collectors from making the false representation or implication that any individual is an attorney or that any communication is from an attorney.
21. Section 807(4) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(4), expressly prohibits debt collectors from representing that nonpayment of any debt will result in arrest or imprisonment of any person or the seizure, garnishment, attachment, or sale of any property or wages unless such action is lawful and the debt collector intends to take such action.

22. Section 807(5) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(5), expressly prohibits debt collectors from threatening to take any action that cannot legally be taken or is not intended to be taken.
23. Section 807(10) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692e(10), further prohibits debt collectors from using false representations or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt.
24. Respondent's representations described in Paragraph 14 are false and misleading and constitute deceptive practices in violation of §§ 807, 807(3-5), and 807(10) of the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692e, 1692e(3-5), 1692e(10).

V.

28. The Enforcement Director will have the discretion to make a determination of non-objection to the Compliance Plan or direct Respondent to revise it. If the Enforcement Director directs Respondent to revise the Compliance Plan, Respondent must make the revisions and resubmit the Compliance Plan to the Enforcement Director within 15 days.
29. After receiving notification that the Enforcement Director has made a determination of non-objection to the Compliance Plan, Respondent must implement and adhere to the steps, recommendations, deadlines, and timeframes outlined in the Compliance Plan.

VII.

Order to Pay Redress

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

30. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Respondent must reserve or deposit into a segregated deposit account $36,878.81 (Payment Floor), for the purpose of providing redress to Affected Consumers as required by this Section.
31. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Respondent must submit to the Enforcement Director for review and non-objection a comprehensive written plan for providing redress consistent with this Consent Order (Redress Plan). If Respondent has provided redress to Affected Consumers prior to the Effective Date, Respondent must provide appropriate documentation of such redress to the Enforcement Director concurrent with the Redress Plan. The Enforcement Director will have the discretion to make a determination of non-objection to the Redress Plan or direct the Respondent to revise it. If the Enforcement Director directs the Respondent to revise the Redress Plan, the Respondent must make the revisions and resubmit the Redress Plan to the Enforcement Director within 14 days. After receiving notification that the Enforcement Director has made a determination of non-objection to the Redress Plan, the Respondent must implement and adhere to the steps, recommendations, deadlines, and timeframes outlined in the Redress Plan.

32. The Redress Plan must apply to all Affected Consumers and:
 - a. Specify how Respondent will identify all Affected Consumers;
 - b. Include a description of the following:
 - i. Methods used to compile a list of potential Affected Consumers;
 - ii. Methods used to calculate the amount of redress to be paid to each Affected Consumer;

 - a. Respondent must mail a certified or bank check to each Affected Consumer along with a Restitution Notification Letter;
 - b. Respondent must send the certified or bank check by United States Postal Service first-class mail, address correction service requested, to

- the Affected Consumer's last known address as maintained by the Respondent's records;
- c. Respondent must make reasonable attempts to obtain a current address for any Affected Consumer whose restitution check is returned for any reason, using the National Change of Address System, and must promptly re-mail all returned restitution checks to current addresses, if any; and
 - d. Processes for handling any unclaimed funds.
35. With respect to the redress paid to Affected Consumers, the Redress Plan must include:
- a. The form of the letter (Restitution Notification Letter) to be sent notifying Affected Consumers of the redress; and
 - b. The form of the envelope that will contain the Restitution Notification Letter. The letter must include a statement that the payment is made in accordance with the terms of this Consent Order and language explaining the manner in which the amount of redress was calculated.
 - c. Respondent must not include in any envelope containing a Restitution Notification Letter any materials other than the approved letters and redress checks, unless Respondent has obtained written confirmation from the Enforcement Director that the Bureau does not object to the inclusion of such additional materials.

36. Within 90 days of completing the Redress Plan, Respondent must submit a Redress Plan report to the Enforcement Director, which must include:
 - a. The procedures used to issue and track redress payments; and
 - b. The amount, status, and planned disposition of all unclaimed redress payments.
37. After completing the Redress Plan, if the total amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers is less than the Payment Floor, then, within 30 days of completion of the Redress Plan, Respondent must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, the difference between the amount of redress provided to Affected Consumers and the Payment Floor.
38. The Bureau may use these remaining funds to pay additional redress to Affected Consumers. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress is wholly or partially impracticable or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau will deposit any remaining funds in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Respondent will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this Section.

39. Respondent may not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Consent Order on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

VIII.

Order to Pay Civil Money Penalties

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

40. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPB, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law described in Section IV of this Consent Order, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), Respondent must pay a civil money penalty of $200,000 to the Bureau.
41. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Respondent must pay $50,000 by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions, and make a subsequent payment of $150,000 within 90 days of the Effective Date, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, in full satisfaction of the civil money penalty as ordered in Paragraph 40 of this Section.

42. The civil money penalty paid under this Consent Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by § 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).
43. Respondent must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Consent Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Respondent may not:
 - a. Claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Consent Order; or
 - b. Seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Consent Order.
44. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, Respondent may not argue that Respondent is entitled to, nor may Respondent benefit by, any offset or reduction of any compensatory monetary remedies imposed in a Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against Respondent based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, Respondent must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau, and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

IX.

Additional Monetary Provisions

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

45. In the event of any default on Respondent's obligations to make payment under the timelines agreed upon in this Consent Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.
46. Respondent must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law and no part of the funds may be returned to Respondent.
47. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Respondent, unless it already has done so, must furnish to the Bureau its taxpayer-identifying numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Consent Order.

48. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, consent order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, Respondent must notify the Enforcement Director of the final judgment, consent order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that Respondent paid or is required to pay to consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid.

X.

Administrative Provisions

68. The provisions of this Consent Order do not bar, estop, or otherwise prevent the Bureau, or any other governmental agency, from taking any other action against Respondent, except as described in this Paragraph. The Bureau may use the practices described in this Consent Order in future enforcement actions against Respondent and its affiliates, including, without limitation, to establish a pattern or practice of violations or the continuation of a pattern or practice of violations or to calculate the amount of any penalty. This release does not preclude or affect any right of the Bureau to determine and ensure compliance with the Consent Order, or to seek penalties for any violations of the Consent Order.

69. This Consent Order is intended to be, and will be construed as, a final Consent Order issued under § 1053 of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5563, and expressly does not form, and may not be construed to form, a contract binding the Bureau or the United States.
70. This Consent Order will terminate 5 years from the Effective Date. 71. Calculation of time limitations will run from the Effective Date and be based on calendar days, unless otherwise noted.

72. Should Respondent seek to transfer or assign all or part of its operations that are subject to this Consent Order, Respondent must, as a condition of sale, obtain the written agreement of the transferee or assignee to comply with all applicable provisions of this Consent Order.
73. The provisions of this Consent Order will be enforceable by the Bureau. For any violation of this Consent Order, the Bureau may impose the maximum amount of civil money penalties allowed under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c). In connection with any attempt by the Bureau to enforce this Consent Order in federal district court, the Bureau may serve Respondent wherever Respondent may be found and Respondent may not contest that court's personal jurisdiction over Respondent.

This Consent Order and the accompanying Stipulation supersede any prior oral or written communications, discussions, or understandings.
