We're fine with moving the deadline for rebuttal reports to March 25 assuming that we can push back the deadline for rebuttal expert depositions as well. Would an April 11 deadline for rebuttal expert depositions work for you?

Thanks,

Alusheyi: I have no problem moving his deposition, provided that the Bureau agrees to extend the date by which we must file a rebuttal expert report. That date is currently March 17, which means that if we move the deposition to March 11, we will have only 4 business days between his deposition and any rebuttal report. Is the Bureau willing to agree to move the date for the exchange of rebuttal reports to March 25?

Provided that the Bureau is willing to move the date for rebuttal reports back to the following week, as proposed, we have no problem rescheduling his deposition. And I think that Friday, March 11 should work (will confirm and get back to you shortly).

I hope that Dr. Hastak feels better soon.

Thanks very much. Allyson.

Subject: Dr. Hastak's deposition

Allyson,

I apologize for this coming up at the last minute, but I wanted to see if Respondents would be willing to move Dr. Hastak's deposition to next Friday March 11. Dr. Hastak's father passed away recently and that required him to travel to India for a week. He has unfortunately returned to the U.S. fairly ill and doesn't think he'll be in condition to testify on Monday as originally planned. Let me know if you would be amenable to moving the deposition and if that date (or some other date) would work for you.

Sincerely,

Alusheyi J. Wheeler
