| Comments: | I took out a $400 loan from Advance Integrity, on 10-06-11, and am just finding out that they charge $120 every 2 weeks for finance charges only. They already took out this amount of $120 on 10-14-11 and they will take this amount out every payday, on the 15th and last day of the month. None of this $120 is towards the principle it is finance charges only. That is 30% every 2 weeks. So $240 per month will be deducted from my checking account with any of this total going towards the loan amount. I am totally shocked and feel very stupid trusting that this was an emergency loan I needed when it is costing so much. Is there anything that can be done about the outragous fees?!! --- Additional Comments: I don't mind paying this loan back, at a resonable interest rate, but this is totally shocking and unexceptable. |
