Before the
CONSUMER FINANCIAL PROTECTION BUREAU

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 2015-CFPB-0029

In the Matter of:

INTEGRITY ADVANCE, LLC and JAMES R. CARNES

Respondents

ORDER DIRECTING PLEADING TO BE TEMPORARILY SEALED
PENDING A RULING ON RESPONDENTS' MOTION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

Hon. Parlen L. McKenna

On March 23, 2016, Respondents filed a pleading entitled "Respondents' List of Controverted Issues of Fact." The following day, Respondents filed a motion for leave to amend the Controverted Issues of Fact, stating that certain information contained within it should remain under seal pursuant to the December 3, 2015 Protective Order. The Bureau has stated its intention to oppose Respondents' request, but the time for filing a pleading in opposition has not yet elapsed.

On March 30, 2016, Respondents' counsel informed my staff that both the initial pleading and subsequent motion had been published to the publicly-available docket on the Bureau's website. Although the document was not initially filed under seal, the question of whether certain information contained therein should not be made publicly available is now pending before me and is not yet ripe for decision. I therefore direct the Office of Administrative Adjudication to temporarily replace Respondents' List of Controverted Issues of Fact, filed on March 23, 2016, with the redacted version , which is found as Attachment B to the March 24, 2016 filing, until I issue my order. At that time, based on my ruling, I will either direct that the original attachment be restored or the redacted version remain in place.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

SO ORDERED.
