Relief Defendants

Case No. 15cv5211 (CM)(RWL)

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER

Plaintiff, the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (the “Bureau”), commenced this civil action on July 31, 2015 against Defendants NDG Financial Corp., E-Care Contact Centers, Ltd. (“E-Care”), Blizzard Interactive Corp. (“Blizzard”), New World Consolidated Lending Corp. (“NWCL”), New World Lenders Corp. (“NWL”), Payroll Loans First Lenders Corp. (“PLFL”), New World RRSP Lenders Corp. (“NWRRSP”), (collectively, the “Canadian NDG Defendants”), and Northway Financial Corp., Ltd. (“Northway”) and Northway Broker, Ltd. (“Northway Broker”) (collectively, the “Maltese Defendants”) for violations of the Consumer Financial Protection Act (“CFPA”) and for Maltese and Canadian NDG Defendants’ violations of the Credit Practices Rule. On December 11, 2015, the Bureau filed an amended complaint adding Kimberly DeThomas, Jeremy Sabourin, and William Wrixon (the “Individual Canadian Defendants”) as defendants, among others. On December 2, 2016, the Court denied all Defendants’ motions to dismiss, concluding that the Bureau had alleged sufficient facts to state claims for relief under the CFPA and Credit Practices Rule, as well as to establish a prima facie case for personal jurisdiction over all Defendants under New York’s long-arm statute. ECF 98.

The Bureau, along with the Maltese Defendants, the Canadian NDG Defendants, and the Individual Canadian Defendants (collectively, “Defendants”), agree to entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order (“Order”), without adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in dispute arising from the conduct alleged in the First Amended Complaint (“FAC”).

FINDINGS

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action.
2. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 5564(f).

3. Defendants waive all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order and any claim they may have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2414, concerning the prosecution of this action to the date of this Order. Each party agrees to bear its own costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees.

4. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

5. For the purposes of this Order, Defendants admit the facts necessary for this Court to establish jurisdiction over them and the subject matter of the action, and Defendants also admit the following:

6. The corporate Canadian NDG Defendants – NDG Financial Corp., E-Care, Blizzard, NWCL, NWLC, PLFL, NWRRSPL, Northway Financial Corp., Ltd., and Northway Broker – and the Maltese Defendants (together, the “Corporate Defendants”) offered short-term loans to consumers located in the United States through a network of affiliated companies located in Canada and Malta.

7. DeThomas, Sabourin, and Wrixon were officers or directors of the Corporate Defendants beginning in 2009. They became owners of the Canadian NDG Defendants in September 2013.

8. The Corporate Defendants did not obtain licenses to lend to consumers from any state before they marketed and offered loans to consumers.

9. The Corporate Defendants represented expressly or by implication that consumers residing in “Subject States” – states where Defendants’ loans violated state licensing or usury laws and consumers were not legally obligated to repay these loans in whole or in part – were obligated to repay loan amounts when such an obligation did not exist.

10. The Corporate Defendants reinforced these representations by: (a) sending executed loan agreements; (b) sending demand letters for payment; (c) originating Automated Clearinghouse debit entries from consumer bank accounts; (d) offering and accepting repayment through money service transmitters; and (e) contacting consumers by telephone to demand repayment.

11. The Corporate Defendants also represented that they had the legal right to collect certain loan payments for these loans.

12. The Corporate Defendants collected repayments from consumers in the United States, including those residing in Subject States where the loans were void in whole or in part due to the state's usury limit or licensing requirement.

13. In loan agreements and communications with consumers, the Corporate Defendants represented that they and the loan agreements were not subject to United States federal or state law and instead represented that Maltese law applied.

14. Defendants conditioned some loan agreements upon wage assignment clauses that did not state that the wage assignment clauses were revocable.
