

575 SEVENTH STREET NW WASHINGTON, DC 20004
T 202.344.4000 F 202.344.8300 www.Venable.com

T 202.344.4264
F 202.344.8300
ATHernacki@venble.com

January 9, 2017

VIA E-MAIL

Alusheyi J. Wheeler, Esq.
1700 G Street, NW
Washington, DC 20552
Alusheyi.wheeler@cfpb.gov

Re: Enforcement Counsel's Designation of an Attorney from the Bureau's Legal Division to Argue on Behalf of Enforcement Counsel, In the Matter of Integrity Advance, LLC et al., File No. 2015-CFPB-0029

Dear Alusheyi:

This letter concerns Enforcement Counsel's recent Motion to Allow Two Attorneys to Argue at the upcoming January 11, 2017 oral argument before Director Cordray. As you know, Respondents did not oppose Enforcement Counsel's Motion. To that end, Respondents request clarification and assurances that the yet-to-be-identified attorney from the Bureau's Legal Division who will be arguing on behalf of Enforcement Counsel has been and will continue to be appropriately walled-off from providing any advice or counsel to the Director concerning this matter. Because the Bureau's Legal Division regularly advises the Director on pending matters, Respondents have understood Enforcement Counsel's request to allow a Legal Division attorney to argue on its behalf to concern a Legal Division attorney who has been, and will continue to be, excluded from any aspect of the Director's decision-making process in this matter.

Please provide the name of the Legal Division attorney who will be arguing on behalf of Enforcement Counsel, and please provide written confirmation that this attorney has been, and will continue to be, appropriately walled-off from the Director as well as any attorneys in the Legal Division advising the Director regarding this matter.

Please contact me, Allyson Baker (202-344-4708), or Peter Frechette (202-344-4616) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

---

Alusheyi Wheeler
January 9, 2017
Page 2

/s/ Andrew T. Hernacki
Andrew T. Hernacki

Counsel for Integrity Advance, LLC, and James R. Carnes

Cc:

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
Office of Administrative Adjudication
1275 First St. NE
Washington DC, 20002