

Find your money answers

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is working with your library to provide free tools and other selected resources that can help you find answers to your money questions.

Visit the library website or ask your librarian if you need information that can help you:

- Improve your credit
- Shop for loans
- Buy a house
- Set short or long-term money goals
- Develop a plan to reach your goals
- Save for college or repay student loans
- Start investing

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is a federal agency working to make banking, borrowing and other money-related services fairer for everyone.
